

Australian applicants holding ordinary passports may apply for a 30-day tourist visa on arrival at the Visa Offices in International Airports in I.R. of Iran.

Airport Visa is granted at Mehrabad, IKIA, Kish, Qeshm, Boushehr, Shiraz, Tabriz, Mashhad, Esfahan, Asalouyeh and Chahbahar airports.

- This type of visa is only for tourist purposes and the following applicants are NOT entitled to this visa facilitation:
 1. Journalists and reporters on a mission.
 2. Holders of Diplomatic/Service passports
 3. Those whose applications for Iranian Visa have been previously rejected.
 4. Iranian Citizens with dual citizenships of Iranian/Australian.
- Airport Visa is issued with the following conditions and requirements:
 1. Tourist Visa applicants have no permission to work or study during their stay in Iran.
 2. The applicants are required to have a confirmed return ticket and a valid passport with at least 6 months validity and a photo to be attached to the application form.
 3. The applicants are required to submit one of the following proofs at the airport:
 - Address and contact number of the place in which they want to stay in Iran or;
 - Invitation Letter or;
 - Hotel booking confirmation for the duration of their stay in Iran
 4. Visa-on-arrival fee: 145 Euros.
 5. You can submit your visa application 3 weeks prior to arrivals to facilitate your visa issuance at the international airports. Electronic Visa can be applied through the following link:
<http://e-visa.mfa.ir/en/visa-arrival/>

Attention:

Applicants who do not meet the above-mentioned criteria are liable for all costs and consequences in terms of being declined.